

1 Wage type interactions

Overview

Menu	Master data → Labor time → Wage types
Transaction code	wtia
Function authorization	wtia

Wage types relations

Main page Profile

Request data Cancel Print preview Print all Insert Copy Edit Delete Save Help on operation Help on application Help on detail application Help

Wage types relations

Drag a column here to group by that column

Wage types r...	Initial wage type	Initial wage type 2	Target wage
Processing	Wage t... Designation	Wage t... Designation	Wage t...
Summarize	220 Extr Adder 25%	300 Night Extra 25%	230
Hide	410 Publ.Hol.Premium 15...	245 Aft.Prem. 15%

Wage types relation Options Last editing

Processing

Copy Summarize Repost Hide Delete

Initial wage type

Initial wage type 220 Extr Adder 25%

Initial wage type 2

Initial wage type 2 300 Night Extra 25%

Target wage type

Target wage type 230 Night Extra 60%

Settings

Order 1

Duration from

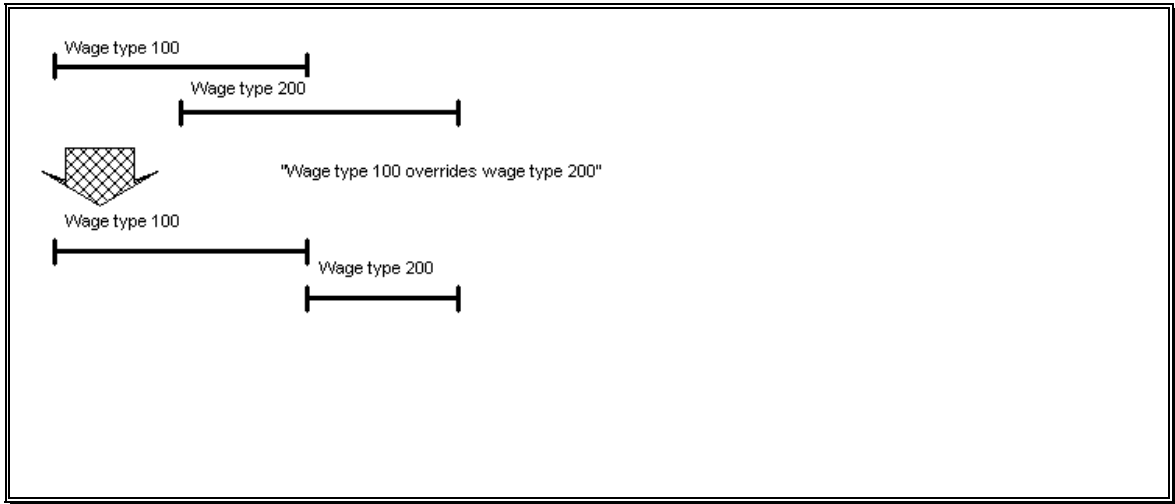

Duration until

Process from

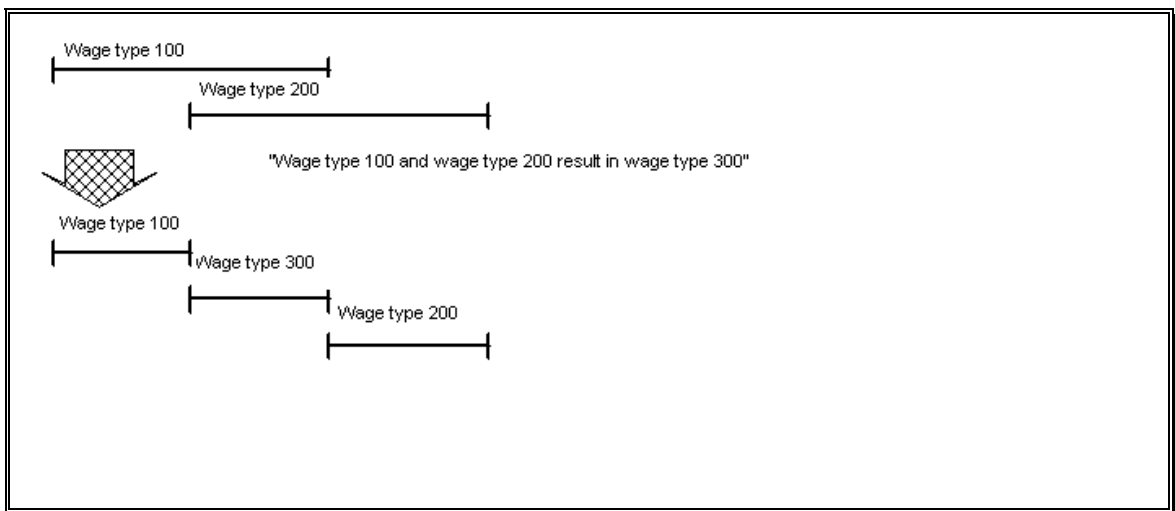

Commentary Night ExtraWork

Purpose

Example:

Example:

Processing

Initial wage type

Sequence

Comment

Date from, to

Company

Selection

This field is used to further narrow down the range of validity of a rule. You can select the following fields of the HR master data: area, cost center, department, personnel number, employee subgroup, activity and employment relationship (salaried/non-salaried employee). If you have selected a criterion, a further field is displayed where you can enter the relevant value.

Period

Point in time