

1 SAP - Application Link Enabling (ALE)

Definition

Application Link Enabling (ALE) is a technology to create and run distributed applications (R/3, R/2, third-party system). ALE enables the exchanges of business and controlled information and data while maintaining the consistency of data management by loosely coupled (asynchronous) systems.